ANU CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES CALL FOR VISITING FELLOWSHIP AND SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

- > April 2012 to April 2013
- > Closing date for applications
1 February 2012

The ANU Centre for European Studies Centre (ANUCES) is a joint initiative of the Australian National University (ANU) and the European Union. It underscores the university-wide commitment to European studies. Located at the heart of diplomatic and political life in Canberra, ANUCES now involves the ANU Colleges of Arts and Social Sciences, Law, Business and Economics, and Asia and the Pacific.

ANUCES promotes interdisciplinary dialogue, generates collaborative research projects, and contributes to the development of public sector policy and debate. The Centre has an established record of leadership in EU studies an Asia-Pacific context. The Centre supports postdoctoral and doctoral research, and visiting scholars working in the field of EU and comparative studies concerning Australia and Europe.

The Visiting Fellowship Program at the ANUCES is part of the Centre's mission to promote research, education and dialogue between Europe and Australia. The Visiting Fellowship Program is aimed at supporting and hosting local and international scholars wishing to undertake research at the ANU.

The broad theme for 2012-13 is 'The European Union, Australia and the Asia-Pacific Region'. Within this theme, several research interests can be pursued that take a comparative perspective involving Europe, Australia and countries in the Asia-Pacific region, such as:

- Regionalism and economic integration
- Defence and security
- Climate change and energy security
- Culture, language and history
- Public policy and governance
- People movement across borders
